Presentation - Women's History Month Proclamation

Catherine Scott read a proclamation regarding Women's History Month.

SULLIVAN COUNTY LEGISLATIVE PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Women's History Month is an annual celebration that recognizes the profound and lasting impact that women have made throughout history, across all fields of endeavor, and in every corner of society; and

WHEREAS, throughout history, women have courageously led the way for progress, justice, equality, and innovation, overcoming barriers, challenging societal norms, and shaping a better world for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, women continue to make groundbreaking contributions in every field - from science, technology, and business, to the arts, government, and education - exemplifying resilience, strength, and vision in the face of adversity; and

WHEREAS, we honor the trailblazing women who have come before us and paved the way, as well as the contemporary leaders and unsung heroes who continue to inspire, uplift, and fight for progress and equality; and

WHEREAS, the history of women is the history of humanity, intertwined with struggles, triumphs, and the shared pursuit of justice, fairness, and freedom for all people; and

WHEREAS, we also recognize and honor the invaluable contributions of every woman, past and present, who has worked for the County of Sullivan, whose dedication, leadership, and service have positively impacted our community, shaping the present and future with their hard work and commitment; and

WHEREAS, during March, we dedicate ourselves to celebrating the achievements, contributions, and boundless potential of women, while recommitting to ensuring gender equality, respect, and opportunities for all women in our communities and around the world;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Sullivan County Legislature proclaims the month of March as Women's History Month and encourages all citizens to reflect on the incredible achievements of women throughout history, to honor their ongoing contributions, and to stand united in the pursuit of a world where women's voices and talents are celebrated, valued, and empowered every day.
