Introduction of Charter Review Commission Members

Chair Rajsz welcomed the four Charter Review Commission members present. She thanked the Charter Review Commission for volunteering their time. She then asked each one to say a few words about themselves.

County Historian John Conway spoke at this time.

Bill Lothrop spoke at this time.

Bill Liblick spoke at this time about his prior service on the Charter Review Commission.

Chair Rajsz stated we will be looking for a Secretary for the Commission,.

George Rose spoke at this time.

Deputy County Attorney Khalid Bashjawish stated there is a question if it would be a conflict of interest for a county employee to serve on the Charter Review Commission. We do not think there would be a conflict because to be on the Charter Review Commission because it would have to affect that employee personally in some way.

Chair Rajsz stated good luck!

Matt McPhillips stated thank you for agreeing to do this.
