The lien of this tax shall have priority over all other real and personal property liens in the same manner as a real property tax levied pursuant to the New York State Real Property Tax Law.

§182-18 Definitions.

Unless the context requires a different meaning, when used in this Room Tax Law, the following terms shall mean:

In the event that the Treasurer determines that an operator is to file such bond they shall give notice to such operator to that effect specifying the amount of the bond required. The operator shall file such bond within five days after the giving of such notice, unless within such five days the operator shall request, in writing, a hearing before the Treasurer at which the necessity, propriety and/or amount of the bond shall be determined by the Treasurer. Such determination shall be final and shall be complied with within 15 days after the giving notice thereof. In lieu of such bond, securities approved by the Treasurer or cash in such amount as they may prescribe may be deposited which shall be kept in the custody of the Treasurer who may at any time without notice of the depositor apply them to any tax and/or interest or penalties due, and for that purpose the securities may be sold by them at public or private sale without notice to the depositor thereof.

Article V Tax Rate; Persons Liable; Taxable Rent; Exemptions

§ 182-25 Statement of tax to be collected; person liable for payment.

- A. The tax to be collected shall be stated and charged separately from the rent and shown separately on any record thereof, at the time when the occupancy is arranged or contracted for and charged for, and upon every evidence of occupancy or any bill or statement or charge made for said occupancy issued or delivered by the operator, and the tax shall be paid by the occupant to the operator as trustee for and on account of the County, and the operator shall be liable for the collection thereof and for the tax. The operator and any officer of any corporate operator shall be personally liable for the tax collected or required to be collected under this Room Tax Law, and the operator shall have the same right in respect to collecting the tax from the occupant, or in respect to nonpayment of the tax by the occupant as if the tax were a part of the rent for the occupancy payable at the time such tax shall become due and owing, including all rights of eviction, dispossession, repossession and enforcement of any innkeeper's lien that they may have in the event of nonpayment of rent by the occupant; provided, however, that the Treasurer or other fiscal officer or officers, employees or agents duly designated

The obligation shall continue to be deemed levied on each day that the occupant is in legal possession of the premises. Where an occupant has failed to pay and the operator has failed to collect a tax as imposed by this Room Tax Law, said operator shall be obligated to pay the total amount of the tax directly to the Treasurer, and it shall be the duty of the operator to file a return thereof with the Treasurer and pay the tax levied thereon to the County Treasurer within 15 days after such tax was due. In the event that the occupant or the operator fail to pay any tax imposed by this Room Tax Law, the owner of the short-term rental unit shall be obligated to pay said tax to the County.
- C. For the purpose of the proper administration of this Room Tax Law and to prevent evasion of the tax hereby imposed, it shall be presumed that all rents are subject to tax until the contrary is established, and the burden of providing that a rent for occupancy is not taxable hereunder shall be upon the operator.

All taxes collected by the operator pursuant to this Room Tax Law shall be deposited in a bank as defined by the Banking Law or a national banking association located and authorized to do business in Sullivan County. Such deposits shall be kept in a bank account, in trust for the County, separate and apart from all other accounts of the corporate operator. Such returns shall be filed within 20 days from the expiration of the period covered thereby. The Treasurer may permit or require returns to be made by other periods and upon such dates as they may specify. If the Treasurer deems it necessary in order to ensure the payment of the tax imposed by this Room Tax Law, they may require returns to be made for shorter periods than those prescribed pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this section and upon such dates as they may specify.
- B. The forms of returns shall be prescribed by the Treasurer and shall contain such information as they may deem necessary for the proper administration of this Room Tax Law. The Treasurer may require amended returns to be filed within 20 days after notice and to contain the information specified in the notice.
- C. If a return required by this Room Tax Law is not filed, or a return filed is incorrect or insufficient on its face, the Treasurer shall take the necessary steps to enforce the filing of such a return or of a corrected return.

§182-30 Payment of tax.

At the time of filing a return of occupancy and of rents, each operator shall pay to the Treasurer the taxes imposed by this Room Tax Law upon the rents required to be included in such return, as well as all other moneys collected by the operator acting or purporting to act under the provisions of this Room Tax Law even though it may be judicially determined that the tax collected is invalid. The amounts required to be billed shall be due from the operator and payable to the Treasurer on the date limited for the filing of the return for such period, without regard for whether a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the amount of rents and the taxes due thereon.

§182-31 Determination of tax.

If a return required by this Room Tax Law is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, the amount of tax due shall be determined by the Treasurer from such information as may be obtainable and, if necessary, the tax may be estimated on the basis of external indices, such as number of rooms, location, scale of rents, comparable rents, type of accommodations and service, number of employees and/or other factors. Notice of such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is assessed, within 30 days after giving of notice of such determination, shall apply to the Treasurer for a hearing, or unless the Treasurer of their own motion shall re-determine the same. After such hearing, the Treasurer shall give notice of their determination to the person against whom the tax is assessed. The determination of the Treasurer shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatsoever by proceeding under Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules if application therefor is made to the Supreme Court within 30 days after the giving of the notice of such determination. A proceeding under Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules shall not be instituted unless:

- A. The amount of any tax sought to be reviewed, with penalties and interest thereof, if any, shall be first deposited with the Treasurer.
- B. At the option of the applicant they may file an undertaking approved by the Supreme Court with the Treasurer in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes, penalties and interest thereon stated in such determination, plus the costs and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event the applicant shall not be required to deposit such taxes, penalties and interest as a condition precedent to the application.

§182-32 Refunds.

- A. In the manner provided in this section the Treasurer shall refund or credit, without interest, any tax, penalty or interest erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally collected or paid if application to the Treasurer for such refund shall be made within one year from the payment thereof. Whenever a refund is made by the Treasurer, they shall state their reason therefor in writing. Such application may be made by the occupant, operator or other person who has actually paid the tax. Such application may also be made by an operator who has collected and paid over such tax to the Treasurer, provided that the application is made within one year of the payment by the occupant to the operator, but no actual refund of moneys shall be made to such operator until they shall first establish to the satisfaction of the Treasurer, that they have repaid to the occupant the amount for which the application for refund is made. The Treasurer may, in lieu of any refund required to be made, allow credit therefor on payments due from the applicant.
- B. An application for a refund or credit made as herein provided shall be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, penalty or interest complained of and the Treasurer may receive evidence with respect thereto. The petitioner will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

- C. A person shall not be entitled to a revision, refund or credit under this section of a tax, interest or penalty which had been determined to be due pursuant to the provisions of §182-32 of this Room Tax Law where they have had a hearing or an opportunity for a hearing, as provided in said section, or has failed to avail themselves of the remedies therein provided.

§182-33 Reserves.

In cases where the occupant or operator has applied for a refund and has instituted a proceeding under Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules to review a determination adverse to their application for refund, the Treasurer shall set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the County.

§182-34 Remedies exclusive.

The remedies provided by §182-32 and §182-33 of this Room Tax Law shall be exclusive remedies available to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this Room Tax Law; and no determination or proposed determination on any application for refund shall be enjoined or reviewed by an action for declaratory judgment, an action for money had and received or by an action or proceeding in a nature of a certiorari proceeding under Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules; provided, however, that a taxpayer may proceed by declaratory judgment if they institutes suit within 30 days after a deficiency assessment is made and pays the amount of the deficiency assessment to the Treasurer prior to the institution of such suit and posts a bond for costs as provided in §182-32 of this Room Tax Law.

Article VII Enforcement of Collection of Tax, Penalties and Interest

§ 182-35 Proceedings to recover tax.

- A. Whenever any operator or any officer of a corporate operator or any occupant or other person shall fail to collect and pay over any tax and/or to pay any tax, penalty or interest imposed by this Room Tax Law as herein provided, the County Attorney shall, upon the request of the Treasurer, bring or cause to be brought an action to enforce the payment of the same on behalf of the County of Sullivan in any court of the State of New York or of any other state or of the United States. Said action may be commenced against the operator and/or the owner of the short-term rental unit. If, however, the Treasurer, in their discretion, believes that any such operator, officer, occupant or other person is about to cease business, leave the state or remove or dissipate the assets out of which the tax or penalties might be satisfied, and that any such tax or penalty will not be paid when due, they may declare such tax or penalty to be immediately due and payable and may issue a warrant immediately and file the warrant against the owner of the short-term rental unit or other appropriate person, upon ten (10) days' notice with the County Clerk to be recorded in the judgment docket.

- B. As an additional or alternate remedy, the Treasurer may re-levy the judgment amount in the warrant as a tax against the real property where the short-term rental unit is situated.
- C. As an additional or alternative remedy, where the occupant has failed to pay and the operator has failed to collect a tax as imposed by this Room Tax Law, then in addition to all other rights, obligations and remedies provided, such tax shall be payable by the occupant directly to the Treasurer, and it shall be the duty of the occupant to file a return thereof with the Treasurer and to pay the tax imposed thereon to the Treasurer within 15 days after such tax was due.
- D. The Treasurer may, whenever they deem it necessary for the proper enforcement of this Room Tax Law, provide that the occupant shall file returns and pay directly to the Treasurer the tax herein imposed, at such times as returns are required to be filed and payment made over by the operator.

§182-36 Penalties.

A. PENALTIES FOR AN INDIVIDUAL'S FAILURE TO REGISTER A SHORTTERM RENTAL UNIT

Listing or offering a dwelling unit, or portion thereof, as a short-term rental unit without a current, valid registration shall be unlawful and shall make persons who list or offer such unit ineligible for registration for a period of twelve (12) months from the date a determination is made that a violation has occurred, together with any other remedies available by law.

The mailing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which is determined according to the provisions of this Room Tax Law by giving the notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.
- B. The provisions of the Civil Practice Law and Rules or any other law relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the County to levy, appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or penalty provided by this Room Tax Law. Except in the case of a willfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more than three years from the date of filing of a return; provided, however, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax may be assessed at any time.
- C. Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed herein for the assessment of an additional tax, a taxpayer has consented, in writing, that such period be extended, the amount of such additional tax due may be determined at any time within such extended period.
