Community Events/ Relations/ Training

10/21/25- Khristian Newkirk, Outreach Worker, Oxford House presented to staff. He spoke about the overall practice of the Oxford House as a peer run, self-sustaining, substance free housing. This is a cost-effective way to improve chances of recovery from alcoholism and drug addiction.

10/28/25- Christopher Pietrangolare, Director, Lexington Center for Recovery, presented to staff. He reviewed Lexington's Ferndale outpatient group schedule, and spoke about the upcoming additions to the clinic.

10/31/25- The highlight of October was our department's participation in the annual Halloween tradition. With over 500 children from our community in attendance, our department truly appreciates the opportunity to interact with and support these young members of our community. We look forward to participating again next year!
